

RAMĀ ŚAKTI MISSION

BULLETIN NO: 287-289 B

29th October 1979

The path of liberation has been shown to you in the dharma of Garhasthya (Order of Home) itself. Chant Her Name and observe dharma scrupulously. Dharma is all-important. Man and woman, both have their respective dharmas. Dharma is the protecting power. Dharma is omnipotent. If the spouses become ardent votaries of the omnipotent Dharma, aye, stupendous power will awake in them, the Power that has stopped even the course of the sun.

Shake off your lethargy and come forward. Cleanse your chittha and get ready. The decree has gone forth. The chariot of Her Cause is on the move. No one can stop it. Her mission does not depend upon any one of you. But it is a privilege granted to you to serve Her Cause. As you offer your heart to Her and consecrate your lives to Her Cause, you will achieve the supreme fruition of your life.

Such a noble soul, magnanimous and pure-minded, who dedicates his entire heart to Her, who is utterly selfless, who always remembers Her, who carries out whatever She commands, is an ideal son, Sathputra. Blessed is his life.

She, the Supreme Physician, has given you the panacea for the cure of samsara. But observance of the dietetic regulations, Patthya is essential. Keep no mind on the paltry and perishable things of the world, on name, fame, wealth, worldly desires. Seek only Her Grace. Be guileless. Surrender to Her Lotus Feet, and you will reach the Goal, you will be blessed.

If a single soul is there, who has thus attained the spiritual redemption, in whom the reflection of that Supreme Shakti shines in undimmed splendor, he will be a beacon light for the jivas groping in darkness. In him, will live the venerated spiritual tradition; and through him will be preserved the great torch of Wisdom in this world.

If a child, from the bottom of his heart, feels how much the Universal Mother has exerted Herself and suffered too, in order to guide him, to correct him, to protect him and to uplift him, if this thought dominates his consciousness day in and day out, he is bound to awake, to arise, and to strive hard until the Goal is reached.

Your spiritual uplift is Her sole desire. What She wants, is your heart, nothing but your pure love. She, Divine Mother, does not want money, jewellery, worship and hymnal praises. But on this account, do not become misers. It is the duty of the devotees to spend and sacrifice for worthy causes, for the worship of the Deity, for thereby they achieve self-purification and earn merit.

Whatever you do for God and worthy causes, without any thought of self, without expectation of any return, leads you to God, and you get the immortal fruit. But all your endeavours in samsara, all your actions performed with selfish motivations and egoistic notion, are like oblations offered in to the mire instead of fire.

Dawn of Jnana (spiritual enlightenment) is of supreme importance. The Enlightened one alone is the source of blessing for the world. So long as knowledge has not dawned, so long as worldly vasanas have not been destroyed, so long as ego has not become extinct, one is bound to samsara. What blessing, what spiritual benefits, can the world derive from him!

RAMĀ ŚAKTI MISSION

What you have heard now, children, is the Word of God, Deva Vaani. He who follows this in reverence becomes eligible for Jnana.